It is a fact that many of our most beloved artists don't earn enough to afford health care or to put aside funds to carry them through personal or natural disaster.

Founded in 1999, the Artists Fund at the Festival of Arts is a non-profit organization which assists struggling Festival artists facing unforeseen financial hardship due to medical necessity, disaster or debilitating circumstances.

Anonymously accessed as emergencies arise, the fund to date has assisted numerous struggling artists and recently expanded services to include counseling, mentoring and scholarship programs that help artists take proactive steps to minimize their exposure to unexpected future hardship. Without Artists, there can be no Art! Thanks for helping.
